The Eagles Glenn
CAVENDISH
PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

The Eagles Glenn in the heart of Cavendish is everything a championship golf course should be. Eighteen performance-inspiring holes embraced by countless awe inspiring scenic views adding up to the perfect balance of challenge and beauty.

A delight to play!

The Eagles Glenn is a championship golf course in the heart of Cavendish Beach, Prince Edward Island. Renowned Canadian golf course architect, Graham Cooke transformed over three hundred acres of this beautiful countryside into a twenty-seven hole championship golf course design, complete with a state-of-the-art practice facility. The Eagles Glenn opened 18 of the 27 hole design in July 2002.

The rich Scottish heritage of Cavendish, a stunning landscape, and the artistry of Graham Cooke, create an atmosphere that golfers will want to enjoy again and again. In honour of this heritage and the Scottish heritage of golf, each hole proudly carries the name of one of the first Scottish families to settle in the Cavendish area.

Consisting of ten - par four holes, four - par fives and four - par threes, Mr. Cooke designed the Eagles Glenn to make walking the course enjoyable. Inspiring views at each hole, four large ponds, white sand bunkers, bent grass greens, tees and fairways bordered with deep green Kentucky blue grass and fescue, complete the experience.

Five distinct teeing areas on each hole provide the right level of play for every golfer.
